

34th International Seminar in Economic Geography

Monday – Friday,
12 – 16 June 2017

4.00 pm – 7.00 pm

Room V 309

Schneiderberg 50
30167 Hannover

Module M7 in the Master's Program of Economic Geography

For students: Application and topic assignments will take place during the information lecture only on the 13th of April 2017, 17:00 p.m. in room V309-3109.

Please notice: Attending the information lecture is mandatory. Without attending this lecture, you cannot sign up for the seminar.

For guests: Guests are kindly invited to participate at the ISEG. Attendance is free of any charge. As a guest, you will not have access to StudIP. Please sign up as a guest until the 5th of June 2017 at the latest by writing an email to Lars Mewes mewes@wigeo.uni-hannover.de.

For additional information:

<http://www.wigeo.uni-hannover.de/iseg.html>

or

Prof. Dr. Rolf Sternberg

Institute of Economic and Cultural Geography

Phone: 0511/762-4496

sternberg@wigeo.uni-hannover.de

Prof. Dr. Benson Honig
McMaster University Hamilton,
Ontario, Canada

MIGRATION AND THE SYRIAN CRISIS: THEORETICAL EXPLANATIONS AND EMPIRICAL EVIDENCE

Seminar 1 (12 June)

Migration and the growth of civilization

Seminar 2 (13 June)

Entrepreneurship: What is it and why should we care?

Seminar 3 (14 June)

Geographies of Entrepreneurship: Diaspora's through the ages

Seminar 4 (15 June)

Globalization, entrepreneurship and return migration

Seminar 5 (16 June)

Contemporary theories and their application to the Syrian 'crisis'